FEARIS.

The following preamble and resolutions were adopted by Croxton Post No. 9, G. A. R., at its regular meeting September 18th, 1894:

WHEREAS, There exists in the pension office considerable apathy toward the old soldier, his widow and orphan; and

WHEREAS, This apathy seems to be growing if we are to judge from the rejection of claims, both original and increase, under old and new law; and

WHEREAS, There seems from reports that thousands of claims under old and new law lay there pigeon holed because of some technical point in the evidence and thus the $25,000,000 are saved that Congress appropriated to pay pensions; and

WHEREAS, The present Administration with the Hon. (7) Hoke Smith, Esq., Lochren & Co., who are fully aware of its unfavorable reputation, caused by its opposition to pension legislation are now trying to get the next National Encampment at Pittsburgh endorse the Administration Pension Policy and to pull the wool over the old soldiers' eyes as it did two years ago in order to get the soldier vote, etc.; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That in the event the National Encampment indorses the Administration Pension Policy this Post will surrender its charter and discard the G. A. R. button and never so long as we shall live look an old soldier in the face only with distrust, as thousands of honest citizens are looking at the present Administration today.

Resolved, That we indorse the Per Diem Pension Bill and hereby request our dele

Grounds consist of fourteen acres, affording ample space for tennis court and other out-door amusements; commandingly located on a hill overlooking the beautiful little city of Richmond, within a few minutes walk the business portion, thus combining the advantages of a city with the retirement of a country seat. Mrs. Bourne and Miss Lloyd will be supported by an able corps of teachers, graduates of our best colleges and universities. Music faculty complete; of acknowledged ability. Boarding department limited to thirty boarders, thus affording opportunity for social intercourse between faculty and students in sitting-room and parlors, impossible in large boarding schools. MISS ALICE LLOYD,
Associate Principals Madison Female Institute, Richmond, Ky.

TESTIMONIALS.

LEXINGTON, KY., May 30th, 1894.
It gives me pleasure to say that I am well acquainted with the character and work of Mrs. A. R. Bourne and Miss Alice Lloyd, and that I think the Madison Female Institute very fortunate in securing their services in its management. They are both ladies of culture, executive ability and of skill in the art of teaching. No parents in Kentucky or elsewhere need hesitate to place daughters under their care or instruction.

LEXINGTON, KY., June 15th, 1894.
To whom it may concern: Having learned that my friends Mrs. Anna R. Bourne and Miss Alice Lloyd have engaged to take charge of Madison Female Institute, it gives me pleasure to say that they are in my opinion in every way qualified for the responsible position. These ladies have had the opportunity of learning the best methods of teaching in some of the most celebrated seminaries in the land. This combined with rare ability and some ten or twelve years experience in the schoolroom, gives assurance of success in their undertaking. Mrs. Bourne and Miss Lloyd as Associate Principals will be aided by a corps of able teachers; and from my knowledge of their ability, energy and Christian culture, I am sure they will do good service in the cause of Christian education. In this expectation I commend them and their enterprise to the patronage of the public.

The Monk!

By MATTHEW G. LEWIS,
(MONK LEWIS.)

Mr. Lewis was a member of the British Parliament, and his book became so popular in England a hundred years ago that it gained for him the title of "Monk Lewis."

It is a fine piece of classic composition, and after being out of print for many years it has been republished from the original text.

It is far superior to "Maria Monk" and books of that character.
